Application

Roll Call: Ayes: Collins, Crenshaw, Lauer, Barnes. No nays.

Betty Ferris, representative of Oregon Ambulance Service, asked why the ambulance service is being dropped from the City's insurance. Mayor Barnes explained that it was by our insurance company's direction, since the ambulance service is not actually part of the City and not accountable to the City.

Reports

Ferris also advised that they heard rumors that the ambulance service would be asked to leave the city hall building. The Council assured that they would not be asked to leave.

Mayor Barnes advised that Lester Sanderson has asked permission to have a gas line extended across City property from Illinois Street to the back of his property on North Fourth St. Council approved the request.

There being no further business, Commissioner Lauer moved that the meeting be adjourned.
Seconded by Norman Collins.

Adjournment
