Roll Call

Council Absent: Commissioner Norman Collins

City Clerk Julianne Crowley

Mayor Barnes called an emergency council meeting for October 2, 1990 in regard to the ambulance service insurance coverage. The press was notified of the meeting and in attendance.

Mayor Barnes advised the Council what had taken place between the Risk Management office, City Attorney, himself and the City Clerk in regard to the ambulance not being covered by the city insurance. He advised that the only way they could be covered is if they were on the city payroll and under city control. The ambulance service declined the offer through their attorney, Don Manzullo, and advised that the service was no longer available until they got their own insurance coverage. Byron ambulance is on stand-by for the Oregon ambulance. The Council agreed that if the ambulance service does not have coverage by the weekend that the City contract with an ambulance service to have an ambulance in Oregon over Autumn on Parade weekend.

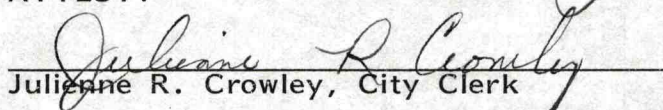

Mayor Barnes will notify the city attorney this evening to make the offer again for the ambulance service to be on the City payroll. If they decline, other arrangements will be made for the weekend.

Jim Lauer moved to adjourn. Seconded by Gail Crenshaw. Motion carried.

Adjourn: 4:25 P.M.

James L. Barnes, Mayor
