Engineer's Report

Stu Wissing, Wissing Plumbing, inquired about the following:

Citizen Request

1. If an extension would be approved on the East Oregon water hook ups. The Council advised that would be taken under consideration at the end of the 90 days.

2. Asked if the $75.00 tap fee was also required for the water service on South Fourth Street since they had paid Harry Fletcher $90.00 to come off his vacation to tap it. The Council advised that the arrangement with Fletcher was separate from the city cost of the tap fee and the $75.00 fee is required.

Chief Miller gave the November activity report.

Police Report

Mayor Barnes reported that snowmobilers have been violating the city ordinance in regard to riding on public property and if it did not cease, he would recommend that the ordinance be repealed that allows them to ride in the city.
