Bids

Roll Call: Ayes: Medlar, Priller, Svoboda, Barnes. No nays.

Gary Schultz, Oregon Police Department DARE Officer, Mayor Barnes and several DARE students made a presentation to Sgt. DuFour in appreciation for the State DARE participation with the City over the last few years. Sgt. DuFour is leaving the DARE program.

Presentation

Al Bond addressed the Council with a request that something be done about the junk yard at John Traver's property at 108 River Road. Another complaint is the dog Traver has which bit one of Bond's tenants who live next door. The dog was on Bond's property at that time. The Council advised that they are trying to do something about the junk and will check on the dog, which was to have been put to sleep.

Citizen
Complaint

Bond advised that he has a problem at his property at 308 South Fourth with the sewer backing up. He requests that the City keep the line clean to eliminate the problem.

Bond advised that there is a water problem in the Fifth St. parking lot. When the lot was built, it was made higher than the buildings, causing water problems behind the buildings. The Council will look into the problem.

Grant Landis addressed the Council in regard to communication between the City and developer at Fairgrounds Estates. Mayor Barnes advised that there will be a meeting on Tuesday morning. Landis would like to meet maybe once a week to see that the project is going smoothly.

Chief Miller advised he would like to have an auction date set. Judy Crowley will work with Mike Bowers to get one set up.

Auction

Phyllis Garard was in attendance and had pictures of the water standing on her property from Wilson's property on Worth Street.

Citizen
Reports

Moe Kielsmeier advised the Council that he was representing the Rock River Development Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and that they were going to clean up Kiwanis Park on Saturday.

The Council acknowledged the recommendation to issue a raffle license to Ogle County Senior Citizens.

Raffle Lic.

Mayor Barnes advised that the Planning Commission was calling Traver in for their next meeting.

There being no further business, Commissioner Medlar moved that the meeting be adjourned. Seconded by Frank Svoboda.
