Seconded by Jim Lauer.

Minutes 6/6/89

Roll Call: Ayes: Barnes, Crenshaw, Lauer, Logan. No nays.

Commissioner Logan advised that he had not approved the bill for Illinois Automotive Corridor as he wanted the Council's input on it. He advised that he was willing to go along with the next year's dues if the Council could get some reports or be made aware of what they are doing to see if it is worth the money being spent on it. Mayor Barnes advised he attends the monthly meetings if they are held nearby. Lauer asked if there were minutes to the meeting. Barnes advised he got minutes of the meetings. He advised that the memo he had sent to the Council in regard to the factory possibly coming to Oregon stemmed from this organization. He advised that the Company did decide to move to Kentucky. Logan asked for copies of the minutes be distributed to the rest of the Council. The Mayor agreed.
