Mayor Barnes proclaimed October 23 and October 24 as Knights of Columbus Mentally Retarded Days.

Proclamation

The Council discussed the school board's request to close off Jefferson Street west of Tenth Street to eliminate the traffic during school hours. The Council denied the request, stating it would compound the traffic problem on Tenth Street.

School Board
Request

Commissioner Svoboda reports that he received an estimate from the engineer on the Illinois Street, Route 64 to Monroe Street sewer lines, and would like to pursue a more inexpensive route. The Council agreed.

Reports

Commissioner Priller advised he has hired Gary Schnorr to work full time in the Street Department and his starting salary is $20,000.00.

Commissioner Aurand advised the Council that the City would be funding three bands for the Autumn on Parade festival in the amount of $2,150.00.

Commissioner Aurand asked the Council to submit their lists on priority projects that need to be done so he can look into working cash bonds projects.

Larry Wilson complained that he is still waiting for a building permit for his property on Worth Street. The Council advised that he has not complied with the requests recommended to the City by the engineer on elevations and drainage for the property.

Carmen Maxson advised the Council that children are playing around Wilson's Worth Street property where Wilson has dug out the foundation and expressed her concern over the safety factor. Wilson was told to put a fence around the foundation for safety.

Mayor Barnes moved to go into Executive Session to discuss the acquisition of property and matters which relate solely to the exercise of the Mayor and the Commissioners of their executive or administrative responsibilities. Seconded by John Priller.
