Proclamations

Commissioner Crenshaw presented a plaque to Chuck Corley, representative of the Rockford EPA office in appreciation for the agency's assistance over the past few years in getting the disposal plant operation up to standards and for their assistance to her since becoming commissioner.
Plaque Presentation

Commissioner Lauer set October 5, 1987 as the date to interview engineering firms and hear their presentations. The Clerk was instructed to notify the five firms and set the times at half hour intervals beginning at 7:00 P.M.
Engineer Presentations Set for 10/5/87

Commissioner Lauer advised he would like a notice published in the paper advising citizens about raking leaves into the street and the burning regulation.
Reports

Attorney Smith requested direction on how to distribute memos to various city officials. The Council agreed he should send a copy to the City Clerk so all correspondence will be on file at city hall.

A citizen complained of the junk cars at various locations on First Street. Mayor Barnes advised him that there is a court order for them to be removed. The citizen also advised that behind the Etnyre building on First Street people are parking their vehicles blocking off First Street. Chief Miller will advise the businesses in the building that that portion of First Street is a designated street and parking is not allowed there.
